Coming Back to Practice Law.

Cincinnati, O., November 7.—President Taft's second day in Cincinnati ied him to the polls like thousands of his fellow-citizens, made him the guest at luncheon of the local Manufacturers Club, where he said he expected to come back to Cincinnati some day to practice law, and gave him an opportunity to speak on peace and arbitration to the American Society for the Judicial Settlement of International Disputes. To-night the President was the guest and principal speaker at the banquet of the Commercial Club. At the conclusion of this speech Mr. Taft retired or board his private car, and early to Times-Dispatch Bureau 199 North Sycamore Street, 199 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., November 7. Hen. Robert Turnbull to-day issued an address to his fellow-clensens of the Fourth Congressional District, announcing that he will be a candidate for renomination for Congress in the Democratic primary of next year. Mr Turnbull states that he was elected Democratic primary of next year. My Turnbull states that he was cleeted to Congress on March 8, 1910, to fill the unexpired term of the late Hon. Francis Rives Lassiter, and served not quite twelve months of his term. In November, 1910, he was re-elected for the term of two years, beginning on March 4, 1911, but the first regular session of which Congress does not begin until Descember 4 next.
